STANDING ORDERS	3

STANDING ORDERS OF THE CONFERENCE.

The Presiding Elders shall be a Standing Committee to nominate the usual Conference Committees and report at the opening of the session. 1880, Journal A, p. 321.

The Presiding Elders shall report to the Conference Secretary the names of lay delegates elected immediately after the close of the several district conferences. 1881, Journal A, p. 354.

The Conference Sessions to open with the administration of the Lord's Supper. 1888, Journal B, p. 277.

The Secretary to be Editor of the Minutes. 1906, Journal, p. 21.

Cause for censure for an undergraduate to fail, without good reason to appear before the Examining Committee. 1908.

Lay members of the District Conference embrace all Sunday School Superintendents, Recording Stewards, and two delegates chosen by the quarterly conference.

Examining Committees may accept work done in the Correspondence School in lieu of examinations by themselves.

Report Referred—The report of J. R. Countiss, President of Grenada College, was read and referred to the Board of Education.

Introduced—Rev. Fred W. Long, Secretary of the Mississippi State Sunday School Association, and Rev. Mr. Simpson, pastor of the local Presbyterian Church, were introduced to the Conference.

Orphans' Home—The Board of Directors of the Mississippi Methodist Orphans' Home presented the following report of the work of that institution:

ORPHANS' HOME.

Our faithful and efficient manager, Rev. W. M. Williams, informs us that the health of the children for the past year has been most remarkable. Though one death has occurred, yet there have been months when no doctor was called.

Bro. Williams is of the opinion that the school is better now than ever before. Four excellent Christian teachers are in charge of it for the session of eight months. Four of our girls and one of our boys are in our Methodist colleges, and the reports of their work are very satisfactory.

The Home has its own Sunday School, preaching service and Epworth League every Sunday. On Wednesday night the regular prayer meeting is held, and on Saturday night the boys have a prayer meeting to themselves. Eighty per cent of the children are members of the Church, thirty-two having joined during the present year. All this assures you that the spiritual interest of the children is by no means neglected.

The two splendid new buildings, one for the school and the other for the boys' dormitory, are finished, furnished and occupied. These add greatly to the comfort of the inmates and the efficiency of their work. Bro. Williams writes: "The children are better satisfied, more obedient and doing better work than ever before."

The manager's books show the following:

Number of children in the Home December 1, 1910.....	187
Number of children received since.....	48
Total	235
Number taken out of the Home by relatives.....	20
Number adopted out	7
Number accepting position of self-support.....	4
Died	1
Total number going out from the Home.....	32
Number of children in the Home at present.....	203

Financial.

Amount on hand December 1, 1910.....	$ 1,388.17
Receipts from monthly contributions to November 1, 1911.....	10,856.37
Received from Work Day offerings.....	4,807.28
Receipts for Specials,—furniture, screens, etc.....	1,587.55
Total receipts for the year to November 1, 1911.....	$17,639.37
Disbursed for the same time.....	15,604.07
Balance on hand	$ 2,035.30

Building Fund.

Total cost of the two buildings.....	$36,945.71
Amount paid on same.....	33,675.71
Balance due on the buildings.....	$ 3,270.00

We call attention to the balance due on the buildings. If all our pastors and Presiding Elders will only tell our people about this on the Sunday before Christmas, and then give them an opportunity to make a Christmas offering for the Home, we are sure the debt will disappear.

The monthly remittance plan, as also the Work Day plan, commend themselves to all, and we recommend their continuance and general adoption for the coming year.

The terms of office of D. W. Babb and Jno. H. Sherard expire with this session of your Conference, and we respectfully ask you to elect their successors.

We see each year the hand of the Heavenly Father in the guidance and provision for this work for the orphans, and we praise Him for the way in which He has shown His approval of the institution and the wonderful providences by which, through human agencies, He has supplied all its needs. Nor can we forget, or fail to appreciate the noble men and women who have followed the leading of God to sustain and foster this Christly work. The list is long and we cannot name them here, but we pray the blessings of the Father on them all. The Lord reward them,—yea, He, Himself, be their reward!

The cause of the orphans does not have to be urged. All it asks is a fair chance. We believe we can count on all our Methodist preachers to see that it gets the best chance during the coming year that it has ever had.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN H. SHERARD, President,
A. F. WATKINS,
For the Board of Directors.

After an address by the manager of the Home, Rev. W. M. Williams, the report was adopted.

Vacancies Filled—J. H. Sherard and D. W. Babb were elected their own successors on the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home.

Report of Trial Committee—The Trial Committee reported as follows:

Shaw of the Winona District, having been examined and recommended by their respective district conferences, and having passed the Examining Committee and the Committee on Admissions, were received on trial by unanimous vote.

Received from Other Churches—The Bishop called Question 8, Who are received from other Churches as traveling preachers? E. R. Bazzel, an elder from the Methodist Protestant Church, having been duly recommended by the Corinth District Conference, and having certified his agreement with us in doctrine and discipline, and having been approved by the Committee on Admissions, was admitted into the traveling connection and his orders recognized. Edwin R. Smoot, an elder from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, having been duly recommended by the Winona District Conference, and having been approved by the Committee on Admissions, was received as a traveling elder on condition that he assume the ordination vows with the class elected elders.

Greetings—Mrs. J. E. Thomas brought the Conference the greetings of the Woman's Foreign Mission Society, reading a carefully prepared paper.

Readmitted—The Bishop called Question 5, Who are readmitted. Jefferson M. Wyatt, having been duly recommended by the Oxford District Conference and having been approved by the Committee on Admissions, was unanimously readmitted.

Public Worship—The Committee on Public Worship announced preaching at 3 o'clock by Rev. H. M. Ellis and at 7 o'clock by Dr. W. F. McMurry.

Closing—Sundry announcements were made, the doxology was sung and the Conference closed with the benediction by Bishop Wilson.

FOURTH DAY—SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1911.

MORNING SESSION.

Opening—Conference met at the appointed hour, Bishop Candler in the chair. The Conference joined in singing the hymn, "Amazing Grace," W. M. Young led in prayer, and the Bishop read from Matt. 20, making pertinent comments thereon, after which the hymn, "Am I a Soldier of the Cross," was sung.

Minutes Approved—The Minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

Next Conference—The Bishop called Question 48, Where shall the next Conference be held? Greenwood, Lexington, and Starkville were placed in nomination. Upon taking a ballot. Greenwood received 82 votes, Lexington 43, and Starkville 2. Greenwood was declared the place of meeting.

Report—The following report from the Sunday School Board was read and adopted:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS—No. 1.

We beg to report that we have arranged to secure the services of Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick as Sunday School Field Secretary and that it is the purpose of the Board to have her conduct an institute at each of the several District Conferences and we ask the adoption of the following resolutions:

First—That we indorse the selection of Miss Kilpatrick for this work and promise our earnest co-operation with her and the Board. We will do our utmost to secure the attendance of our Sunday School workers upon these institutes and, to that end, as pastors and laymen, we pledge ourselves by correspondence and otherwise to begin at once the work of making these meetings successful and beneficial.

Second—That as pastors we will give special emphasis to the observance of Children's Day and will emphasize the observance of the Church law in holding the Children's Day services on the third Sunday in May, or as near thereto as practicable. We will insist upon the collections being placed in the hands of the Treasurer of the Sunday School Board immediately.

Third—That we recognize the value of organizing the Adult Bible classes in each school and as pastors we pledge ourselves to bring this matter to the attention of the Sunday School workers of our charges early in the year. We will heartily co-operate with the Sunday School Board in an effort to perfect these organizations in the schools of our charges.

R. P. NEBLETT, for Board.

Bishop Wilson took the chair.

Transfers—The Bishop called Question 6, Who are received by transfer from other Conferences? He announced the following: J. W. Ward and H. G. Roberts, from the Mississippi Conference; T. L. Houston in the Class of the First Year, and Otis G. Andrews in the Class of the Second Year, from the White River Conference.

Discontinued—Otis G. Andrews was discontinued at his own request.

Joint Board—The Joint Board of Finance made the following report, which was read and adopted:

FINANCE.

We recommend that an assessment of 1 per cent. of the salaries of the pastors be levied for the Superannuate Endowment Fund for the coming year. Inasmuch as fully two-thirds of the charges report nothing for this cause the present year, we urge the Presiding Elders to keep this worthy cause before the pastors and people.

The amount collected for Bishops is in advance of last year. We regret to note that the collection for Conference Claimants is $600.00 short of that of last year. We believe this to be the one nearest the hearts of the people and, without disparaging other claims, we think this one should be paid in full. The number of claimants becomes larger each year, and the Church cannot allow its true and tried soldiers to suffer in the evening of life.

District Records—The Committee on District Conference Records made the following report, which was read and adopted:

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

After inspecting carefully the journal of each district of the Conference your committee would present the following as their report:

Taken altogether the journals of the several districts indicate great care, and in instances painstaking accuracy in entering the records.

The Aberdeen journal is well kept and in most excellent form, except that by some mistake it is shown in the records that the secretary was elected before the calling of the roll, and the list of the District Conference members is pasted within the journal, instead of being recorded.

The Journal of the Columbus District has been most faithfully kept by the very excellent secretary, Mr. W. V. Connell, who was for fifteen years the efficient secretary of this district.

Bro. Connell having passed during this year to his great reward in heaven, the minutes of the District Conference had not yet been recorded. The proceedings, however, including every detail, had been so carefully preserved that they may be recorded without inconvenience by his successor.

The Corinth District journal is passed upon by the committee as in "good condition."

The Durant District record for the year is mentioned as a "model of neatness" in form and penmanship.

To the honor of the management, and of the secretary, Rev. J. T. McCafferty, the Greenville District journal is well kept and in fine condition.

In the Oxford District records some resolutions are pasted within the journal, whereas they should have been recorded; and the character of a local preacher is mentioned as having been arrested and a committee appointed, but the names of the committee do not appear, nor do the minutes indicate that the committee reported the result of their work.

The Sardis and Winona District journals are both well kept and in elegant condition.

J. H. SMITH, President,
A. H. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Spiritual Interests—The Committee on Spiritual Interests made the following report, which was read and adopted:

SPIRITUAL INTERESTS.

In our finances, we sometimes think we find the key to the spiritual life of our people. Judging from this standpoint, notwithstanding the ravages of army worm, boll weevil, drouth, and flood, our collections have not fallen far short of last year. Our Sunday Schools are better than ever before in our history. Epworth Leagues are teaching and training the children to pray, and lead in prayer-meetings. There are prayer-meetings of adult members of the Church still held on mid-week nights and in many places they are well attended, and are real feasts to the soul. All are teaching God's holy word.

We are sorry to learn that the family altar, so much revered by our fathers, has in this day been greatly neglected. It was a sad time in Israel when her altars were broken down and home training corrupted. Failure, defeat, and captivity followed as results. We are glad to hear reports from pastors that some have rebuilt the family altars. God bless and multiply these a thousand fold.

It has been thought that election years are not favorable to revivals, and we have had one of the most heated political campaigns ever known in the state. Yet there have been added to the Church on profession some 2,600 members, the result of faith and labor on the part of our preachers. Let us take courage and go forth to do better work than ever before, being assured that our strength is in the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and not in men nor methods; and that we can only get the power by a complete surrender to his guidance and perfect consecration to the work he has given us to do. From the above facts, we feel that the spiritual state of the Church is good, but we long to see a revival break out as in the olden time.

(Signed)

JOHN RITCHEY, for Committee.

Returned—The Committee on Spiritual Interests returned the Memorial as to International Peace Treaties, submitting that the Church was already committed on such questions.

Temperance—The Committee on Temperance made the following report, which was read and adopted:

TEMPERANCE.

We are especially thankful to God for the progress that has been made in abolishing the liquor traffic. We realize that ultimate victory has not yet been gained, but we are grateful for that thus far achieved, for the devotion of our people to the cause of temperance, and for the stand our state has taken in the matter.

We realize that to a large extent this interest and zeal for temperance is due to our women, and we wish to express to the Mississippi Woman's Christian Temperance Union our appreciation of the magnificent work they have done in this great cause.

We would also commend our state, county, and city officials who have most effectively enforced our prohibition laws. We are in hearty accord with the action of our last legislature, in establishing the office of county attorney, in that this office has been most helpful in the conviction of violators of the temperance laws.

We recommend that the legislature could still further aid this great cause by enacting legislation making the sale of liquor in the state of Mississippi a felony, punishable with a term in the penitentiary. Realizing that the most effective temperance work can be done with the youth of our land we further recommend that our next legislature provide that scientific temperance instruction with reference to alcohol and narcotics be taught in all grades of the public schools, that this teaching be made mandatory and that teachers be made to pass examinations on this as on other subjects.

We endorse the work of the Anti-Saloon League and suggest that the President of this Conference appoint two delegates to attend the national convention of this league, to be held in Washington, D. C., December 11 to 15, which purposes to present to Congress legislation forbidding the shipment of liquor into dry territory and the issuing of liquor licenses in such territory.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. WEAVER, for the Committee.

Sabbath Observance—The Committee on Sabbath Observance made the following report, which was read, amended, and adopted, the amendment memorializing the legislature of the state to repeal the statute which permits drug stores to open for business on Sundays.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

When man fell away from his blessed state in the garden to be beset by temptations and evil forces that would tear him in pieces, God gave to him a law, that was to be for him a rock of refuge; and when man, in his mad rush after the things of this world, so far forgets his exalted nature and dependence on God as to loose his anchor from this rock, there will be mourning in the home and desolation in the street. The destiny of humanity rests in obedience to the commandments that are nothing more than the great moral law that binds man to God, and would be binding on him if Moses had never climbed Sinai.

God Instituted the Sabbath.

1. As a day of rest; but the American people are living so fast that they are forgetting the meaning of the word rest. Captains of industry make such demands on the time and energy of employes that their labors extend into the Sabbath.

2. The Sabbath is a day for worship. Amid the abundance and wealth of material things the vision of God is clouded in the souls of many of our people, and there is a lack of reverence for holy things.

The automobile, though a great achievement in modern transportation, is becoming a factor in our Sunday morning worship, not in bringing people to church, but in taking them away on cross-country tours.

The voluminous Sunday editions of daily papers are a temptation to be at ease by the fireside or shady nook on the porch and forget the worship in the temple.

The railroads not only carry on their traffic on the Sabbath, but tempt our people with low Sunday rates.

The drug stores open on Sunday with a full corps of salesmen selling all manner of drug sundries, in open violation of the law.

Ice cream parlors, soda fountains, and cigar stands are lounging centers on the Sabbath, to the moral hurt of the young life.

As a cure for these evils we do not recommend that our preachers act as detective agencies or police forces, but that they preach and teach reverence for holy things, and endeavor to bring the people into a vital knowledge and vision of the Lord of the Sabbath. Keeping ever before you the thought that your own life and example is as great as your sermon, and "praying always with all prayer and supplication" that the spirit of almighty God will come down and quicken the public conscience.

Resolved, That we memorialize the Legislature to repeal that statute which permits drug stores to keep open on Sundays.

W. M. LANGLEY, for the Committee.

Delegates—The Bishop appointed the following delegates to the National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League to be held in Washington, D. C., December 10-15, 1911: G. L. Jones, J. H. Sherard; J. G. McGowen, alternate.

Full Connection—The Bishop called Question 4, Who are admitted into full connection? E. Nash Broyles, Elijah H. Cunningham, John Elet Stephens, Clint Atkins Northington, Thomas E. Gregory, Tannie Jebron Halfacre, James Selwyn Duke, James Archie Coleman, John G. Johnson, and John Albert Biffle, were called to the chancel, exhorted by the Bishop with especial reference to their own religious experience, and after answering the disciplinary questions, were by unanimous vote received into the traveling connection.

Hospital—The Hospital Committee made the following report, which was read and adopted:

HOSPITAL.

Your committee beg to report that, having considered the report of the Hospital Commissioners, they are gratified with the progress that has already been made with this noble enterprise, and it is greatly to be desired that it be pushed to an early completion.

The plan of engaging in this form of Christian endeavor has passed the tentative stage and is now in the fixed policy of our Church; and the opportunity presented to the Conferences committed to the movement with which we are connected is one full of promise for the largest usefulness to suffering humanity.

Your committee think it well to remind you that this particular movement had its origin in this Conference, which was induced to initiate the plan by the large-hearted layman, Mr. John H. Sherard, to whose untiring efforts and unfaltering faith, under many difficulties, the present flattering conditions are largely due.

We are pleased to note that proper appreciation of Bro. Sherard's services has been shown by his election as chairman of the Hospital Board, and we believe that his leadership is a guarantee of success.

The Board has been fortunate in securing the services of Rev. H. M. Ellis of the Mississippi Conference as Field Secretary. His labors have been abundant and directed by wisdom, and the co-operation of the Church in the entire field covered by this movement should be ungrudgingly accorded to him—nothing less will accord with the formal action of the Conference, by whose authority he entered this field.

Without special effort a goodly sum has already been contributed to the Hospital Fund; but the importance of this great work must be impressed upon our men of wealth in such way that they will be moved to contribute liberally out of their abundance for the relief of suffering humanity. All, indeed, both rich and poor, must be led to share in this great work.

We cordially approve the fixing of January 28, 1912, as Hospital Rally Day, and urge that on that date, or as near thereto as practicable, every Sunday School, Epworth League, Woman's Home Mission Society, and congregation observe the day with appropriate services and take liberal offerings for this cause. Let the Presiding Elders and pastors see that this order is carefully and generally observed.

Bro. Ellis has prepared literature and will furnish it upon application, and he will gladly co-operate in every way upon request.

Resolved, That we renew our pledge to heartily support the Hospital enterprise; that we commend the work of the Board of Trustees and the Field Secretary; and that we invite Bro. Ellis to visit our territory freely and co-operate with us in raising the funds necessary for the complete and early success of the Hospital.

The administration of the Board of Commissioners is to be approved and commended, and we would nominate the present members, John H. Sherard, Rev. J. W. Dorman, Rev. W. S. Lagrone, J. D. Barbee, and J. R.

Bingham, for re-election for the ensuing year and until their successors shall be installed.

Respectfully submitted,

W. L. DUREN, Chairman.

Address—Rev. H. M. Ellis made a brief address with reference to the hospital work, of which he is Field Secretary.

Greetings—Mrs. Walter Campbell brought to the Conference greetings from the Woman's Home Mission Society, sketching briefly the great work accomplished by that organization.

Missions—The Board of Missions made the following report to the Conference:

MISSIONS.

Though the missionary enterprise of the Church represents but one of its varied activities, it is the one which best indicates the condition and promise of all departments. This is not true simply because we have made it first in the systematizing of our work; but for the reason that here is the best portrayal of the Church's perception of the real passion of Christ, who declares: "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." And here, we think, is the most unalloyed acknowledgement of Christian debtorship.

When we review the fields for a vision of what God has done, we are overwhelmed by the very opportunities of the hour; and we are appalled by the clamors that will not be hushed. The year has been one of substantial progress in every field, and closes with the loudest challenge ever made to the Church. In Japan, united Methodism faces a task too great for the native Church. The old currents of thought, which have moved placidly through the centuries, are broken up. Buddhism with its faculty for accommodation makes haste to simulate the habiliments of the Christian religion. Agnosticism enters the lists with its creed of despair, and now is the opportunity of the Christian Church. The Pentecostal fire still burns in Korea. Brazil is a land of the open door. Mexico, though distracted by frequent revolutions and gripped by a corrupt Romanism, is slowly yielding. Priest-ridden, Rome-cursed Cuba makes its way toward the cross. And above all, the victorious march of the spirit of democracy in China can have but one meaning: That our God is placing the teeming millions of that Christless empire as plastic clay in our hands to be fashioned for Himself. But in all cases more and more God brings the races from beyond the seas and posts them at our very gates.

But from this inspiring challenge we turn with a sense of shame to the chapter written by the Church. In no Church have the contributions kept pace with the work, and everywhere a heart-breaking retrenchment seems inevitable. In our own Church we have not met the normal expectation of work conservatively projected; and some individual churches, by the consent of the Board and under its supervision, have opened up new work and failing of its support after a time have left their deserted task as a heritage to an already overburdened Board. And hard has been the task of those who must hear the call of the lost, and measure their response by the meager offerings of the Church. During the year now closing you need to know that our own Conference has registered its interest in the work of world-redemption by contributions amounting to 32 cents per capita.

The General Board lay an assessment for 1912 upon our Conference, as follows: For Foreign Missions, $12,500.00; for Home Missions, $3,900.00; and to this your Board add for Conference Missions, $7,855.00.

This is substantially the same assessment as for 1911—the difference being that a part of the Foreign Mission assessment of 1911 has been transferred to the Home Mission Assessment for the reason that it was found necessary to transfer such amount after collection for Home Mission uses.

In addition to the foregoing assessment for Foreign Missions, and by way of co-operation with the General Board in its proposed "surplus plan," we ask that the sum assessed shall be supplemented by voluntary offerings in every charge over and above the assessment so that 50 cents per capita shall be the goal reached by our Conference for 1912.

In order to accomplish this task, and to unfetter the missionary spirit, we recommend and urge that the mission assessments be taken out of the budgets where this financial method is employed, and that the pastor himself be responsible for collecting the mission funds. We would also urge that our pastors begin the work of taking their mission collection at once.

Rev. J. T. Lewis has made us a faithful and efficient Conference Missionary Secretary, and we respectfully request the Bishop to reappoint him to this position.

Afternoon Session—On motion, the Conference resolved to meet in afternoon session at 3 o'clock, and in Memorial session at 3 o'clock Sunday.

Public Worship—The Committee on Public Worship announced preaching by Dr. F. S. Parker at 7 o'clock and the following

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Methodist Church—9 a. m., Love Feast, led by J. W. Honnoll; 11 a. m., sermon by Bishop Wilson, followed by the ordination of deacons; 3 p. m., Memorial services; 7 p. m., sermon by Bishop Candler, followed by the ordination of elders.

Fresbyterian Church—11 a. m., sermon by J. T. Lockhart; 7 p. m., sermon by B. P. Jacob.

Baptist Church—11 a. m., sermon by Bishop Candler; 7 p. m., sermon by E. S. Lewis.

Episcopal Church—11 a. m., sermon by J. T. Murrah; 7 p. m., sermon by W. N. Duncan.

Colored Methodist Church—11 a. m., J. W. Honnoll; 7 p. m., J. W. Raper.

Leave of absence was granted J. Ritchey for the remainder of the session.

Closing—Sundry announcements were made, the doxology was sung and Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Wilson.

FOURTH DAY—SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1911.AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opening—Conference opened at 3 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Bell, by appointment of Bishop Wilson, in the chair. He announced Hymn 317, "More Love, O Christ, to Thee," and J. W. Honnoll led in prayer.

Minutes Approved—The Minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

Sunday Schools—The Sunday School Board made the following report, which was read and adopted:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS—No. 2.

Your Board begs leave to report that they have carefully considered the interests intrusted to them and that marked progress has been made in method and spirit throughout the Conference.

Our Field Secretary, Miss Elizabeth Kilpatrick, has been diligent and painstaking. Her report, which has been printed and distributed, will speak for itself. To Mr. R. M. Weaver is due the unanimous thanks of the Conference for his valuable assistance and advice, without him much of the splendid work could not have been accomplished. He has been appointed by the Board as Assistant Secretary to serve without salary.

The Board notes with pleasure the growing value of the matter and volume of our periodical literature, especially is there a great advance in the circulation of the "Adult Student."

We are honored by having one of the members of our Conference as Assistant Editor of the Sunday School literature and respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. J. W. Boswell, D. D., to this position.

Our Sunday Schools are urged to co-operate as far as possible with the Church Extension Board, Louisville, Ky., in their plan for creating a loan fund through the birthday offerings for the supply of needed equipment to carry on the work of the modern Sunday School in needy fields.

The Board hereby endorses the splendid enterprise of the erection of a Tri-State Hospital at Memphis, Tenn., and our schools are requested to have some part in this monumental work by getting into touch with those having the matter in charge and contributing, as opportunity presents itself, whatever amount they can to this worthy cause. Write Rev. H. M. Ellis, Memphis, Tenn., and as far as possible let Sunday, January 28, 1912, be observed in some way as "Hospital Day," calling attention to the needs and opportunity.

We call attention with pride to the splendid "Workers' Manual" edited by Mr. J. R. Pepper of Memphis, Tenn., and it is the purpose of this Board to place a copy in the hands of every Sunday School Superintendent in the Conference.

Favorable notice is also taken of the plan for the erection of a model Sunday School building on the grounds of the Southern Assembly near Waynesville, N. C.

In accordance with the offer made in our report last year the Sunday School of the First Church, Corinth, is awarded the prize for the best exhibit as a school and the Young Men's Bible Class of Houston for the best exhibit of a class organized this year.

The treasurer's report will show the total amount of Children's Day offerings to be far below that of last year. Only one hundred charges out of one hundred and sixty-three reported any amount on this cause, only five of those reporting paid $20.00 or more and only seven reported as much as $15.00 or over.

Banner Charges.

The Sardis District is the banner district, having raised the largest amount on Children's Day, and Cockrum is the banner charge having raised the largest amount of any charge in the Sardis District, $25.75. This is also the largest amount sent in by any charge in the Conference before the session of the Conference and only one other charge reports any larger amount and that has been reported to the treasurer on the third day of the Conference. The following are the banner charges for the remaining districts:

- Winona District—Duck Hill.
- Corinth District—New Albany Circuit.
- Aberdeen District—Tupelo.
- Durant District—West.
- Columbus District—Starkville.
- Greenville District—Lula and Lyon.
- Oxford District—Grenada Circuit.

You will note that six of the banner charges are circuits and of the two others each reported their money to the treasurer at the seat of the Conference.

The Board extends the offers of last year to the schools and classes presenting the best exhibits of work done.

American Bible Society—The American Bible Society Board made the following report, which was read and adopted:

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

As men know and live out the word of God they more nearly approximate the ideal life hid with Christ in God. The entrance of God's word giveth light. The scriptures make us wise unto salvation. The greatest work of the Church is to increase the study of God's word. This can only be done as the Bible is put in reach of men. The Bible can be most effectually distributed by the American Bible Society. The thought of commercial profit has never moved its presses, but a desire to bring man and the word of God together.

The presses are now turning out more than one hundred thousand volumes every working day. The contributions of the Methodist Church have been liberal and the returns have justified the investment. Your Board is sorry to report a deficit of $329.50 on an assessment of $1,200.00. The amount collected this year is $870.50 or $157.00 less than was collected last year.

Twenty charges have failed to pay even a small amount on the assessment and many reported a deficit.

Every charge in the Durant District has paid more or less on its assessment, which is the only district of which this can be said. We recommend that the same assessment ($1,200.00) be made as last year and apportioned as before. We also ask that the Presiding Elders be requested to appoint a man in each district to present the interests of the American Bible Society at the District Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

S. A. BROWN, Secretary.

Arbitration Treaties—The following resolutions were read and adopted:

Whereas, the reception by this Conference of the Memorial of the Starkville Pastors' Association in regard to peace treaties, without comment, is liable to be misunderstood; and

Whereas, we are preaching the gospel of peace and striving to enthrone the Prince of Peace as the Supreme Ruler of the universe; therefore,

Resolved, That we are in hearty accord with this great movement and that we fully endorse the action of the Federation of Churches in appointing a committee to represent the sentiment of all the Protestant Churches on this all-important subject before the next Congress of the United States.

EUGENE JOHNSON,
J. W. DORMAN,
J. E. CUNNINGHAM.

Books and Periodicals—The Committee on Books and Periodicals made its report, which was read. W. D. Wendel moved to amend by striking out the strictures on the Methodist Review and inserting instead thereof a request to its editor to omit from its pages in the future articles favorable to higher criticism. The amendment was tabled and the original report adopted, as follows:

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Freed from debt and blessed with an abundant prosperity, our Publishing House is now in an available position for accomplishing the aim of the illustrious founder of Methodism and the purpose of its own origin, namely, the spread of scriptural holiness over the land. This it is to a considerable extent doing; but the passing of the books from the saddlebags of the itinerant makes the substitution of other and equally efficient methods of distribution imperative if our people are to continue to be readers of our devotional literature and well-informed Methodists and Christians.

The exhibit of our Publishing Agents, Messrs. Smith & Lamar, is very satisfactory as a financial showing, and it reflects deserved credit on the capable gentlemen who have that great trust in charge.

The Christian Advocate has grown steadily in merit under the direction of Dr. Ivey. Indeed, it has never been more acceptable and satisfactory as a religious newspaper.

The Methodist Review continues to enjoy the popularity which it early secured under Dr. Alexander's editorship. The numbers of the magazine for the current year have contained contributions and other matter of absorbing interest and the highest merit.

Nevertheless, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we do not approve of giving the right of way in our Review to those who wish to exploit the "new theology," particularly if it be unaccompanied by the most positive editorial dissent. Moreover, we most heartily commend our young and accomplished brother, T. H. Lipscomb, for his able and timely discussion of unfortunate tendencies in this direction.

The Sunday School has become so great a thing in the world, and the literature provided for it from all quarters has now become so excellent, that when we say that ours excels them all we are aware that we are according it high praise; but it seems to be the consensus of opinion that Dr. Chappell and his able assistants are producing the very best line of Sunday School literature now in use. And it will not be amiss to utter words of commendation concerning the Working Manual for Chairmen, Members and Field Secretaries of Annual Conference Sunday School Boards which has been recently issued by that princely layman and great Sunday School expert, Mr. J. R. Pepper. Since its appearance there can be no longer any excuse for not knowing how to make the Sunday School succeed.

Dr. Parker seems to be doing well with the Epworth Era in its important but difficult field. The note of devotion and service sounds throughout its pages, and it must be a wholesome inspiration to its youthful readers.

We note with profound satisfaction the re-election of Dr. Meek to the position of editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate for a full term of four years. But it does not surprise us in the least, for the character of his work for the past two years could have led to no other result at the hands of intelligent men.

We feel a pardonable pride in the brilliant success which Dr. Meek has achieved in the editorial chair, for it reflects credit on us as well as him; and it is quite in accordance with our own estimate when we hear it said that throughout the connection the New Orleans Christian Advocate is regarded as one of the most ably edited of all the papers published by our Church. But we should rally to its support and roll up such a subscription list as will enable Dr. Meek to obtain a reasonable salary for the service he is rendering.

We recommend the re-election of J. T. Murrah, W. W. Woollard and H. S. Spragins as members of the Publishing Committee of the New Orleans Christian Advocate.

Bro. Bachman, our worthy colporter, continues abundant in good works. No man among us renders a more lasting service. The distribution of good books is of the greatest importance, and our pastors would do well to supplement and assist Bro. Bachman in every way possible.

The following report shows the result in figures of the colporter's work for the past year:

Books sold	$3,142.05
Church Papers and Sunday School Literature.....	246.23
Total	$3,388.28

We request that Bro. Bachman be reappointed.

J. D. BARBEE, Chairman.

Doctrinal Preaching—The following resolution was adopted:

Feeling the need and importance of a clear presentation of our doctrines, be it

Resolved, That Rev. T. W. Dye be invited to visit our churches and give our people the result of his study of the word of God and of Methodism in its doctrinal integrity.

Church Extension—The Board of Church Extension made the following report, which was read and adopted:

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The report of the General Board to the Conference Board of Church Extension, gives information which should cause us to feel and express great gratitude to God for His favors upon this arm of church work. From this report we learn that there has been a steady advance in all parts of this particular work throughout the bounds of the Church.

In the territory covered by the North Mississippi Conference there has been an advance in the Church Extension movement.

But there are a few things which your Board thinks should be emphasized more earnestly than has been done heretofore.

The Conference Loan Fund.

It is said in the report of General Board that it is a growing conviction that money loaned is a more efficient asset, both to the lender and borrower, than any other form of help. Therefore your Board recommend that more attention be given to the enlargement of your Conference Loan Fund. There is at present a fund for that purpose of $585.47. This fund should be many times larger and by giving particular care to the matter it might be made so.

In the Sunday School Loan Fund there are twenty-six birthday jars in use within our bounds, which have collected during the last fiscal year $3.85. If our pastors will only call the attention of the Sunday Schools to this matter, we are of the opinion that this undertaking may be made more useful.

We again request the Presiding Elders to arrange an appropriate hour for the presentation of the Church Extension interest in their respective districts, and in the absence of a representative from the Board to appoint a member of the district to advocate the same.

In conclusion, we call attention to the fact that there are sixty-one societies within our territory which are homeless and that of the 557 houses of worship within the Conference bounds 304 have been aided by the Church Extension Boards. On an assessment of $7,270.00, $5,001.50 was collected. The assessment of the coming year is $7,712.00.

J. W. DORMAN, for the Board.

Missions—The Board of Missions made Report No. 2, which was read and adopted, as follows:

MISSIONS—No. 2.

The Board respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. L. W. Cain missionary evangelist for the Corinth District without salary.

We also request the Conference to elect Rev. J. H. Felts to fill place of Rev. J. W. Herring on Board of Missions, he having been nominated by Rev. B. P. Jaco.

WM. L. DUREN, President of Board.

Address—Dr. G. S. Sexton was introduced and made a brief address in behalf of the Representative Church to be erected at Washington City.

Lay Leader—The Chair called Question 47, Who is elected Conference lay leader? On motion J. R. Bingham was unanimously elected.

Business Suspended—Conference suspended business for a brief session of the Ministerial Relief Association of the Conference.

Business being resumed, the Conference resolved to meet on Monday morning at the hour of 8:30 o'clock.

Adjournment—On motion the Conference adjourned with the benediction by R. A. Ellis.

MEMORIAL SESSION.

Opening—The Conference met in Memorial session at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Bishop Candler in the chair. The hymn beginning, "O God, our help in ages past," was sung, T. C. Wier led in prayer, and the Bishop read a lesson from the holy scriptures. "O think of a home over there," was sung, and the Committee on Memoirs made its report, answering Question 21, What preachers have died during the year? B. B. Sullivan, W. T. J. Sullivan, J. R. D. King, and J. W. McGee have answered the last roll-call.

The memoir of W. T. J. Sullivan was read by J. W. Boswell, and brief talks were made by G. W. Bachman, J. H. Mitchell, and T. C. Wier; that of J. R. D. King was read by W. N. Duncan, and J. H. Mitchell, R. A. Meek, and H. C. Edmondson made appropriate remarks; that of B. B. Sullivan was read by A. H. Williams for D. M. Geddie, and that of J. W. McGee by T. H. Dorsey. The report of the committee was adopted. Hymn 611, "Come let us join our friends above," was sung.

Time Changed—The action of the previous session fixing the time of meeting Monday morning was reconsidered and the time fixed at 8 o'clock. The business of the Memorial session being finished, Conference adjourned with the benediction by Bishop Candler.

MEMOIRS.

Dr. W. T. J. Sullivan.

William T. J. Sullivan, son of Stephen and Nancy Kirby Sullivan, was born in Lauderdale County, Tennessee, November 4, 1829. Before he was five years old his mother died and he was committed for a while to the care of his maternal grandmother, then to an uncle, William B. Kirby, whose home was in Lebanon, Tenn. This uncle, who conducted a saddle and harness establishment, left Lebanon and went to Holly Springs, Miss., and carried young William with him. His father married again and took the lad back to his home in West Tennessee. He was then large enough to be helpful about the house and farm, and to attend school. In the matter of schooling, advantages were meager, such only as were afforded by the "old field school" of that early day. But here he laid the foundation for the solid and finished education which he acquired in after years. In the autumn of 1839 the family moved to Arkansas and settled near Smithville, between the Strawberry and Spring Rivers. For about seven years young William lived the life of a pioneer, which at that time was rough and hard. A farm was to be opened. Timber for a dwelling to be cut and hewed, boards for covering to be split, trees to be felled and the brush burned. Clearing was hard work and everything had to be done by "main strength." The hauling was done by ox teams on home-made trucks, the wheels of which were sawed from large black-gum logs. In the settlement of this new home in the West, William did a good share, and so efficiently, that he became his father's chief help. He took part, likewise, in the sports—not in frolics, shooting-matches, etc., but in the hunting of game—deer, turkeys, small game, and in ridding the country of destructive wild beasts. Speaking of these early times, Dr. Sullivan said in after years, "I had little time to hunt, but my father had a trusty rifle, fired with a flint lock, which I sometimes used with effect." In this new country when he could be spared from the farm, he went to school. At eighteen years of age he returned to Holly Springs, and under the instruction of his Uncle William he learned the saddler's trade. In this, as in everything else, he was faithful, putting into it his best work. That was nearly sixty-five years ago, and so short a time as seven years back a gentleman living in Texas said there was in his home a saddle made by W. T. J. Sullivan.

The first Sunday after reaching Holly Springs, he attended Sabbath School and joined a class. Up to this time, though he had been religiously impressed all along, he had made no profession of faith. Singleton J. Henderson, a man of blessed memory, was the pastor. During the year he secured the services of Dr. P. P. Neely, one of the great preachers of the day, and together they held a meeting which resulted in a great revival and the conversion of more than one hundred souls. One of the number was young Sullivan, who immediately connected himself with the Church. This imposed upon him new duties, and to help him in their discharge he availed himself of all the means of grace. He began the study of the Bible, and set apart hours for prayer. The course then marked out he pursued to the end of life.

Soon after conversion there was awakened in the young Christian an interest in the salvation of souls, and the conviction that it was his duty to preach was forced upon him. This conviction quickened his desire and determination to secure an education. His personal means being inadequate, how to accomplish his cherished purpose he knew not. But the way was opened through the kind offices of Rev. James N. Temple, perhaps the best scholar of his day in the Memphis Conference. Other friends became interested, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Norfleet, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, who lived in Marshall County, near Mt. Pleasant. For a time he did work for Rev. William McFerrin. Dr. Temple gave him instruction in Greek and Latin and other subjects; and when Dr. Temple opened the Marshall Academy, four miles west of Mt. Pleasant, he entered as a student, and remained until he was competent to assist in teaching. After teaching there for a year he was elected a member of the faculty of the Byhalia Female Institute.

In 1853 Brother Sullivan was licensed to preach by the Marshall Circuit Quarterly Conference, Rev. Moses Brock Presiding Elder, and Rev. T. L. Beard preacher in charge. Marshall Circuit, then in the Memphis Conference, embraced the territory now included in the Mt. Pleasant and Red Banks charges and other points in Marshall County. In his diary he wrote July 23-28, 1854: "Feel like working for the Lord." "Meeting at Farrow's closed on the 26th. Had a good time. 14 converts. The Lord displayed His power and love. Enjoyed the meeting much. In good health this morning. Love the Lord and am willing to serve Him." "O Lord, give me Thy grace that I may serve Thee acceptably and preach the gospel in its purity." In 1855 Bro. Sullivan entered the Junior Class of the University of Mississippi and was graduated in 1857 with the A.B. degree. After graduation he was given a tutorship in the university, which he held for a year, and received the degree of A.M. His alma mater also conferred upon him about the year 1878 the honorary degree of D.D.

In November, 1857, Bro. Sullivan was received into the traveling connection by the Memphis Conference. Previous to this he served Oxford station as a supply, taking the place of the pastor, Rev. E. J. Williams, whose health had failed. At the time of his reception into the itinerancy he was under appointment as missionary to Japan, and was ready to sail with Rev. Young J. Allen, who was going to China. For this service, as an additional qualification to his literary and theological training, he took a course in medicine, first at Nashville, then at New Orleans, securing his diploma at the latter place. For further equipment he was ordained to the eldership by Bishop James O. Andrew, who presided over the Conference. When ready for the long voyage to Japan he was informed that the Board of Missions was without funds. This changed his plans and changed the course of his life. He entered zealously into the itinerant work, and maintained an effective relation for full forty and eight years.

He was a man of high order of talent and thoroughly consecrated to God and the Church. He served on circuits, stations and districts, and as president or professor in colleges. His work in the schools was as president of Woodville Female Academy in Mississippi; as professor in Soule College, Murfreesboro, Tenn.; as president of Central College, Lexington, Mo., and as professor in the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Mississippi, at Starkville. In the fall of 1883 he resigned his position in the college at Starkville, and devoted the remainder of his active life, twenty-four years, to pastoral work, filling in order, the following charges: Oxford, Como, Grenada, Columbus District, Grenada District, Kosciusko District, Columbus District, Sardis District, Black Hawk, and Pickens. He was granted the superannuate relation in 1907. From this time he made his home in Jackson, Miss., that he might be with his children. He identified himself as far as possible with the religious life of the city, and especially with Millsaps College. He was elected to the General Conferences of 1890, 1894, 1898, and 1902. The North Mississippi Conference never had a more faithful representative.

Brother Sullivan was three times married, first to Miss Mariah L. Moore, who after six short weeks was called away by death. His second wife was Miss Sue Magruder of Madison, Miss., to whom he was married in 1861. She became the mother of five children, three of whom died in infancy. Two remain, one daughter, Miss Eleanor K., and Professor J. M. Sullivan of Millsaps College. The mother was called to her reward in April, 1882. In October, 1883, he was married to Miss Eleanor M. Magruder, who lives to mourn the death of her faithful and beloved husband.

In person Dr. Sullivan was tall and slender—erect. In young manhood and through his prime his eyes were sparkling and his hair raven black. He was extremely neat in his dress, but without any suspicion of fastidiousness. In manner he was quiet and unassuming, dignified, but not pompous. He never put on airs. As he grew in years, and his head whitened, he as completely as any man of his time answered to St. Paul's ideal of an elder in the Church of God. 1 Tim., iii:2-7.

As a preacher Dr. Sullivan was Christian and orthodox. He believed in the divinity of Jesus Christ, and in the merits of His atonement. He believed in the saving power of grace, and realized it in his own heart. The things which he believed he preached; and in order to preach them intelligently and effectively he made them his study, availing himself of every help adapted to throw light on the word of God. His desire was to know "the mind of the Spirit." He read much, comprehended clearly and discriminated wisely. Nothing could move him from the sure foundation, or turn his attention from the Cross. He held to the truth. He had no patience with religious fads, or theological vagaries. Modern theories of inspiration, or the idea of an expurgated edition of the word of God found no sympathy in his mind. And yet he was progressive—ready and willing to use any new thing that could make him a better and more useful preacher. His preaching was profound. He analyzed the truth, and not infrequently in his analysis he went further than many minds could follow. This was natural to mind as well trained and as logical as was his. In speaking he was slow and very deliberate, never at any time did he become what is called an impassioned speaker. But he enunciated distinctly, was always choice in his words, and always used the right words in the right place. His voice was pleasant and of great compass, which facts largely compensated for his deliberation in speech. He was not what is known as "a popular preacher." Notwithstanding, such was his popularity by virtue of his great usefulness that his pastorates, oftener than otherwise, extended through a quadrennium.

The crowning characteristic of his life was his piety. It was deep and never failing. He was called the St. John of his Conference, and well deserved the name. His very appearance bespoke a man of great and unaffected piety. His spirit in preaching impressed strangers that he was more than ordinarily pious. Nobody could be in his presence, even for a short time, without feeling the atmosphere of piety. And of this he seemed to be unconscious. There was no effort to make such an impression. He indulged no pet phrases, had no "Shibboleth," nor did any pious ejaculations escape his lips. His was a quiet, modest piety, manifested only in accordance with the Lord's rule: "Let your light so shine before men." The world took knowledge of him, as it did of the apostles, "that he had been with Jesus." Time would fail me to tell of all the beauties and glories of this good man's life—his love for God and little children, his devotion to truth and loyalty to the Master's cause. The whole is summed up in one sentence: "He was the highest style of a man, a Christian." It goes without saying that he was faithful in his work as a Methodist preacher. Duty was his watchword.

The end came to him as it comes to all. A little over three years ago he had the misfortune to fall and fracture one of his hip bones. This put him in bed for three months and occasioned great suffering. After this, when able to go on crutches, he suffered inconvenience, but very little physical pain. Nor did his general health suffer to any great extent. The good habits of life formed when young gave him a strong constitution that served him well in old age. His last sickness was brief but not painful. His condition was not realized by friends and family until a few hours before his release. He had said a little while before the end that he desired to live, "but this may be my last sickness. If that is the Lord's will, the will of the Lord be done." He entered into rest on the afternoon of the 11th day of July, 1911.

The noble-minded, pure hearted, faithful preacher, loyal Methodist, consecrated Christian, W. T. J. Sullivan, is with us no more.

"Servant of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the vict'ry won,
Enter thy Master's Joy."

JNO. W. BOSWELL.

Bartlett B. Sullivan.

Bartlett B., son of Jas. A. and Amarilla Sullivan, was born in Monroe County, Mississippi, November 24, 1857, converted in August, 1874, licensed to preach September, 1879, admitted on trial into the traveling connection in 1886, received into full connection in 1888, and ordained deacon by Bishop Galloway, ordained elder by Bishop Keener, 1894, and died December 18, 1910.

As indicated by the above dates, he was a member of the North Mississippi Conference for twenty-four years, twenty-three of which he spent in active work, being supernumerary in 1896. He served thirteen pastoral charges, all hard fields, measured by the work required and the financial return given. But his heart was in the work and it was performed with fidelity to the Lord and a cheerful and optimistic spirit. He never sought prominence, nor entertained selfish or unworthy motives.

For him, no place was too difficult, no cross too heavy, no sacrifice too great. Though modest and gentle, he was as courageous as a Wellington when this heroic quality was demanded.

In 1897, he was married to Miss Stacy of Dublin, Miss., who gladly and loyally shared with him the varied experiences of a Methodist preacher's life. They were blessed with four children, two boys and two girls, all of whom with the devoted wife and mother survive to mourn his departure.

Bro. Sullivan was a Christian of the clearest Methodist type. In doctrine, experience, and practice, he was a true and noble son of the Wesleyan family. His religion was not a formal creed nor a speculative theory. It was a consciousness of Christ enthroned within his heart, the hope of glory, and giving vitality and apostolic zeal to his ministry. He knew Christ in the forgiveness of his sins, the regeneration of his heart, and the witness of the Spirit, and in the joyous fellowship of daily communion.

Measured by homiletic rules, he was not a great preacher, nor was he in any technical sense a doctrinal preacher. His faith in the gospel of Christ as God's power to save from sin was simple and child-like. Such a ministry could not be fruitless. Under its influence, sinners were converted and saints were edified and inspired with noble purposes. He was also a true pastor. Like St. Paul at Ephesus, he visited from house to house warning men day and night, even with tears. He loved men and mixed with them, but his chief delight was to visit the homes of the unfortunate and afflicted. It was in the association of such people that he found his greatest opportunity for doing good. Long will his name be remembered by the unfortunates to whom he ministered, many of whom were doubtless at the pearly gates to welcome him at his coming. It is often said that God buries His workmen, but carries on his work. It is also true that he buries His workmen to carry on His work, for this world is but a preparatory department wherein His children are fitted for citizenship in heaven. The departure of Bro. Sullivan was "ready to be offered, having fought a good fight and kept the faith." We rejoice in his triumphant victory. Heaven has new attractions for those who loved Him.

We pray that the peace of God may abide with the wife and children until the happy day of their reunion in the heavenly home.

D. M. GEDDIE.

Rev. J. R. D. King.

Rev. John Rigor Drish King, son of Judge William Woodson King and Catherine Drish King, was born in New Orleans, La., November 27, 1842, and died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. F. Arnold, Bellefontaine, Miss., September 25, 1911.

He was reared in Tuscaloosa, Ala., and at an early age was graduated from both the literary and law departments of the University of Alabama. He did service in the Confederate army, Company A, 45th Alabama Infantry, rising to the rank of captain of his company. While in this service he was captured and imprisoned at Johnson Island, Ohio, from which he was not released until June 16, 1865.

He was converted at Cooksville, Miss., August, 1882, and licensed to preach in 1885, and in December of the same year he was admitted on trial into the North Mississippi Conference at Kosciusko. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Keener in December, 1887, and ordained elder by Bishop Galloway in 1889.

During the twenty-two years of faithful service as a minister of the gospel, his appointments were as follows: 1885 and 1886, Salem Circuit; 1887-90, Shuqualak Circuit; 1891 and 1892, Walthall Circuit; 1893 and 1894, Carrollton Circuit; 1895 and 1896, Winona Circuit; 1897 and 1898, Cockrum Circuit; 1899, Courtland Circuit; 1900 and 1901, Coffeeville Circuit; 1902 and 1903, Tunica Circuit; 1904, Benoit Circuit; 1905 and 1906, Booneville Circuit; 1907, Palestine Circuit.

At the close of 1907, being in feeble health, he was granted an honorable superannuate relation by the Conference held in Corinth and gracefully retired from the active ministry.

Bro. King was a good preacher, an acceptable pastor and a faithful servant of the Church, which he devoutly loved.

He was in declining health for more than four years and was confined to his room for nine months. In his last illness he frequently spoke to his pastor of the Christian's hope and consolation. He died as he lived, trusting in Jesus as his personal Savior. His body was buried at Bellefontaine, Miss., after funeral services conducted by Rev. C. A. Northington, Rev. E. M. Shaw and Rev. T. H. Mitchell.

He was twice married. In 1870 he married Miss Sallie Barnes Moseley, who lived but a few years. In the year 1878 he married Miss Estelle Moseley, who died at Courtland, Miss., in 1899.

He is survived by two brothers, Rev. Edmond King, a minister in the Presbyterian Church, and Judge Frederick D. King of New Orleans; a sister, Miss Grace King, and by two children, J. R. D. King, Jr., of New Orleans, and Mrs. E. F. Arnold of Bellefontaine, Miss. May the whole family be reunited in heaven. We deeply deplore the loss of our efficient brother, but we hope to meet him in the home above.

Jesse W. McGee.

Jesse W. McGee, son of Jesse B. and Mary S. McGee, was born in Winston County, Mississippi, August 29, 1862, and died October 22, 1911, at forty-nine years of age. He was converted at Salem Camp Ground in August, 1890, licensed to preach at Starkville, Miss., June 7, 1895, admitted on trial in 1899, and ordained deacon, admitted into full connection in 1907, ordained elder by Bishop McCoy in 1910 at Sardis.

From the date of his admission on trial till 1907, he was chaplain to the state penitentiary and at the same time a student at Millsaps College, from which he received his degree in 1907. During the year 1908, he served Main Street Church in Water Valley, when he was again appointed chaplain of the state penitentiary, which charge he filled faithfully up to the day of his death, passing as he would have wished directly from his post of duty. Five years ago, he suffered a stroke of paralysis while preaching to the state prisoners, after which he was not in vigorous health, but he persisted in his loved employ, having a second stroke while preaching to the students of Millsaps College in April, 1911. This left him weaker than ever, but he remained in the service and fell under the final stroke while preaching to the prisoners at Parchman, Miss., October 22, 1911.

He was honored and loved by all who knew him. He was a man of great energy and frugality. He entered Millsaps College with little if any money, and only the nominal income of $16.50 per month from the chaplaincy. Yet he managed to support himself and family, never forgetting to put aside ten cents out of every dollar received from any source for the Lord's treasury. He was honored by every one at college, from the most elementary student to the president himself. He was held in the highest esteem by the state officials, especially by those associated with him in ministering to the care of the prisoners. None among us walked more worthily, and he was never suspected of any conduct unbecoming a Christian minister. He was possessed of a faith that did not doubt. "He believed God and it was accounted unto him for righteousness."

At the age of twenty-five years he was married to Miss Gertrude Martin of Starkville. Seven children, four boys and three girls, were born unto them, all of whom, with their mother, still survive. The prayers of his brethren will go up to the Father that he may prove himself indeed a Father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow, and that they may live to honor the memory of their loved one and make the world a better place in which to live, eventually forming an unbroken family around the great white throne.

T. H. DORSEY.

FIFTH DAY—MONDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1911.

Opening—Conference met at the hour appointed, Bishop Wilson in the chair. After the singing of a hymn, O. L. Savage led in prayer.

Minutes Approved—The Minutes of the sessions of Saturday afternoon and of the Memorial session were read and severally approved.

Transfers—The Bishop resumed the call of Question 6, Who are received by transfer from other Conferences? He announced the transfer of T. M. Brownlee from the Texas Conference.

Epworth Leagues—The Epworth League Board made its report, which was adopted after reading.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The credentials of the Epworth League, like the great Church of which it forms an organic part, are to be found in the character of the men and women it produces. A pastor of one of our large city churches tells us that every member of his board of stewards to whom he can intrust the leading of any service in his church came through the League.

Mr. W. B. Stubbs says that the most effective work in our Church is being done by the young men who received their training in the Epworth League. Dr. DuBose estimated that at least one thousand men are in our ministry through the spiritual work of the League. It is said that scarcely a candidate goes forth from the Women's Boards either to the Home or Foreign fields who has not been largely influenced and trained in the Epworth League. With few exceptions the ranks of the deaconesses and city mission force have been filled by young women who had been active League workers. Our own Home Mission Secretary says, "The Epworth League still holds the first place among the agencies of the Church for the winning, training and developing of our young people for the higher expression of their religious life. * * * They can lead a prayer-meeting, teach a Sunday School class, give an entertaining and instructive missionary address, organize for a picnic, direct a social, and perform almost any other function connected with the Church. If one would know the credentials of the Epworth League, let him look around."

Such helpful and necessary agency for training, directing and conserving the young life of the Church ought not to be neglected. We had a successful and profitable Epworth League Conference at West Point in June past. Our next Epworth League Conference will be held in Okolona June 11, 12, 13. We urge all our Presiding Elders and pastors to be present, and to have all the Leagues and the young people represented.

Three of the Presiding Elders' Districts held League Conferences this year, and we urge that all the districts so organize and hold conferences in co-operation with the Epworth League Board.

We call special attention to the "Week of Prayer" to be observed the week preceding Easter Sunday, and emphasize Easter Sunday as Young People's Day, set apart by our Annual Conference for a number of years. We suggest that the programme prepared by the Board be used in this service either morning or evening and an offering taken for our Conference League work.

We heartily commend the policy and work of our efficient secretary, Dr. F. S. Parker, and his able assistant, Rev. J. M. Culbreth; also our most excellent paper, The Epworth Era, as indispensable to the success of the League. We commend the editor for excluding patent medicine advertisements from the Era. Our Leagues are still increasing the Educational Loan Fund, and we are now assisting three young preachers in college and others are applying for assistance. Contributions for this worthy cause are earnestly solicited. We desire that next year shall be our banner year in Epworth League work. Our aim is a League in every pastoral charge.

J. B. RANDOLPH, Secretary.

Vacancy Filled—J. H. Felts was elected to fill a vacancy on the Board of Missions.

Ordinations—Bishop Wilson presented the following certificate of ordinations:

ORDINATIONS.

Macon, Miss., December 4, 1911.

I, A. W. Wilson, hereby certify that on Sunday, December 3, 1911, after the sermon at 11 o'clock in the Methodist Church in Macon, Miss., I ordained the following traveling preachers deacons: E. Nash Broyles, James A. Coleman, Elijah H. Cunningham, James S. Duke, J. E. Stephens,

Thomas E. Gregory, Tannie J. Halfacre, John G. Johnson, and Clint A. Northington; also the following local preachers: Thomas L. Oakes, F. D. Alexander, James D. Wroten, and Robert C. Rhodes, the last mentioned elected by the Little Rock Conference.

Also, at the same place and on the same day after the evening sermon by Bishop Candler, assisted by him and the elders present, I ordained the following traveling preachers elders: James C. McElroy, Kenneth P. Foust, Edward B. Sharp, and Howard G. Roberts, and administered the vows of an elder to Edwin R. Smoot, from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

(Signed)

A. W. WILSON.

Question 11—What traveling preachers are ordained deacons? E. Nash Broyles, James A. Coleman, Elijah H. Cunningham, James S. Duke, Thomas E. Gregory, Tannie J. Halfacre, John G. Johnson, Clint A. Northington, and John A. Stephens.

Question 13—What local preachers are ordained deacons? James D. Wroten, F. D. Alexander, Thomas L. Oakes, and Robert Clinton Rhodes, the last elected by the Little Rock Conference.

Question 15—What traveling preachers are ordained elders? James C. McElroy, Kenneth P. Foust, Edward B. Sharp, and Howard G. Roberts.

Question 17—What local preachers are ordained elders? None.

Question 18—Who are located this year. None.

Education—The Board of Education made its report, which was read and adopted, as follows:

EDUCATION.

Your Board of Education has considered the matters presented to it by the various educational interests and present to this body the following results of its labors:

1. We note with pleasure the continued efficiency of the theological department of the Vanderbilt University and call attention to the forward movement inaugurated by the last General Conference in increasing the usefulness of the Correspondence School in the creation of the department of ministerial supply and training, the functions of which are as follows: (1) To secure, as far as possible, an adequate supply of men for the ministry by keeping before the Church its responsibilities in raising up young men for this service. (2) To inspire those who are thus called to the ministry with a high ideal of their work, and to stimulate them to a more thorough preparation therefor. (3) To make available for them the best preparation possible for the ministry of today by developing and correlating the ministerial education of the Church. (4) To aid the young men to avail themselves of these facilities, and to secure a thorough training for the ministry by giving them such financial assistance as may be necessary. (5) To raise a loan fund, the income from which is to be used for this purpose, according to the regulation of the Board of Education. (6) To conduct the Correspondence School as has heretofore been done in connection with the Biblical department of Vanderbilt University.

Your Board notes with genuine pleasure the progress made at Millsaps College as reported by President D. C. Hull. An increased enrollment, a better discipline, a number of substantial improvements in the buildings, the faithfulness and efficiency of the faculty, all impress us with the permanence and growing power of the institution.

We are glad that a number of District Conferences have passed resolution proposing a fitting memorial to our lamented Bishop Galloway to be erected upon the campus as a part of the educational equipment of the institution. We commend the purpose and express the hope that when the time is opportune funds will be gathered for the memorial.

We commend the wisdom shown by the Rev. J. E. Cunningham, retiring Presiding Elder of the Oxford District, in selecting young men for charges accessible to Millsaps College and the State University—who needed further educational equipment and desired to secure the same. These young men have done well, both in their studies and in their charges and a genuine and permanent contribution is thus being made to the equipment of splendid young men in our Conference.

We are glad to report the unprecedented success of Grenada College under the presidency of the Rev. J. R. Countiss. Financially, in numbers, and in its scholastic attainments it is doing the best work in its history. Our people should give this institution hearty support because of its merit.

Conference Secretary.

In accord with recommendation of the General Board the Conference Board asks the appointment of Rev. T. H. Lipscomb to this office and define his duties as follows: It shall be the duty of the Conference Secretary of Education.

(1) To keep in touch with the Secretary of the General Board and co-operate in such plans as may be suggested by him, after consultation with the executive committee of the Conference Board.

(2) To receive from the Presiding Elders or from church officers in our Church schools information concerning ministerial students who may be in need of assistance, and to seek to provide in such cases money to be used as a loan fund to be advanced by the North Mississippi Conference Board of Education, the fund to be permanently reserved for such use.

(3) To advise by letter or otherwise with young preachers as to how best to expend their money for books most suitable to their needs, and to co-operate with them in every way possible for their more complete equipment for the work of the ministry.

(4) To attend the District Conferences, as occasion may require, in furtherance of any educational ends which the Conference Board of Education may deem advisable, or the executive committee, in the interims of the Conference sessions, may approve.

(5) To assist the President of the Conference Board in such matters as may be presented by him, and in every way possible to advance educational interest among our people.

Your Board notes the growth of the Seashore Divinity School. We are glad to report that thirty-five members of our Conference attended last year. The work of the undergraduates was satisfactory, the lecture courses were strong and the enterprise promises large returns at a small outlay. The commissioners from our Conference recommend the continuance of our relation with the school and this Board recommends an assessment of $250.00 to support said institution.

The following are nominated for election as members of Board of Trustees of Grenada College: B. P. Jaco and J. E. Cunningham to fill vacancies of Dr. W. T. J. Sullivan, deceased; and S. M. Thames, resigned.

The following ministers and laymen are nominated to succeed themselves on Board of Trustees of Millsaps College: Revs. R. A. Meek and H. S. Spragins, and Messrs. J. B. Streater and G. L. Jones.

J. C. Park, H. S. Spragins, and J. D. Barbee were constituted an executive Committee of Board to act upon all matters in the interim of the Board meeting.

(Signed)

JOHN PARK, for Committee.

Thanks—The following resolutions of thanks were adopted by a rising vote:

THANKS.

Resolved, 1st, That we hereby tender our hearty thanks to the people of Macon for their large and liberal hospitality in entertaining us as a Conference.

2nd, To the pastors and people of other Churches for their friendly courtesies.

3rd, To the choir for their splendid music.

4th, To the pastor, Rev. R. H. B. Gladney, for his untiring efforts in providing for our comfort.

5th, To the railroads for reduced rates.

6th, To the Commercial Appeal for allotting so much space to the proceedings of the Conference, the accuracy of the reports being largely due to Rev. T. H. Lipscomb, representing the paper.

7th, To the News-Scimitar and the Jackson Evening News, which have also contained liberal reports of the Conference.

8th, To our efficient Secretary, Rev. J. R. Countiss, whose minutes never have to be corrected.
